

Speakers

Jerry Haney, Visionomics – Jerry Haney is a former Xerox and Marion Laboratories executive and author of Making Culture Pay – Solving the Puzzle of Organizational Effectiveness. Visionomics is a speaking, training and consulting practice whose purpose is to enable organizational leaders at any level of any organization to maximize the performance of their organization, thereby enabling it to live up to its full potential.

Tim Beck, Pittsburg State University, Head Football Coach—

Tim Beck enters his third season as Pittsburg State University's head football coach and his 26th year on the Gorillas' staff. Beck led Pitt State to the school's fourth all-time national championship and a 13-1 record in his second season leading the Gorillas.

Beck served for 16 years as the Gorillas' offensive coordinator and 22 seasons as a member of the Pitt State coaching staff. He became Head Football Coach in 2009. In his inaugural season, Beck guided PSU to a 6-6 record. In year two (2011), the Gorillas won the NCAA-II National Championship Game for the fifth time in school history.

Beck was a two-year football letterman at Pittsburg State, playing defensive back for the Gorillas from 1985-86. He earned All-CSIC honors both seasons and was an NAIA All-District 10 pick as a senior. Beck also was a team captain in 1986. Beck, Kansas native, played football at Dodge City Community College before joining the Gorilla program. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from PSU in 1988 and a master's degree in physical education from PSU in the summer of 1989. He is married to the former Gena Thomas and they have a four children.

Congressman Kevin Yoder (INVITED) - Kevin Yoder is a 5th generation Kansan who grew up on a grain and livestock farm in rural Kansas. It was there that Representative Yoder learned the true value of hard work and where he saw first-hand the ingenuity and prairie spirit that makes Kansas such a special place.

Yoder was sworn in to serve his first term as a Member of the 112th Congress in January 2011 and he is was reelected for his second term in 2013. Representative Yoder was selected as one of only three freshmen to serve on the House Appropriations Committee. He also serves on the Financial Services, Commerce, Justice and Science and Military Construction and Veterans Affairs Appropriations Subcommittees. Yoder is focused on balancing the federal budget, reducing the national debt and supporting policies that help private sector job growth. Prior to being elected to Congress, Representative Yoder served as a State Representative in the Kansas Legislature, representing Leawood and Overland Park. Representative Yoder chaired the House Appropriations Committee where he led the effort to cut spending, balance the Kansas state budget, and oppose tax increases.

Congressman Yoder graduated from the University of Kansas with degrees in Political Science, English, and Law. He lives in Overland Park with his wife, Brooke.
